2012 Audi R8

As so many folks have said, buying an expensive car sight-unseen can be a stressful proposition. However, Chris's low-key approach and money back guarantee convinced me it might work. In fact, it turned out to be an easy transaction. The car is every bit as good as Chris described - pristine. The car was well detailed, full of fuel, and just plain gorgeous. Deidra made sure all the paperwork was correctly prepared and shipped to me overnight. Chris even took care of the shipping arrangements, and I had the car in days, not weeks. A truly class act.
